CEO MESSAGE

Winter's long journey to spring can bring a touch of melancholy to those who would rather be socializing than constantly staying in from the cold. We long for relationships, adventure and expression. It may be the reason we have a tradition of creating romance and thoughtfulness to those we love this time of year. Our care for others cannot be contained forever; it must be put into action.

What a wonderful time to get creative about sharing the love you have for others. Whether it's an intimate partner, a long-time friend or even a new acquaintance, there are plenty of ways to show you care. At Gano Excel, we have two of the greatest gifts you can give: the health and wealth of Ganoderma lucidum. These gifts have revitalized millions of people around the globe and continue to spread thanks to people like you.

Don't let yourself get caught empty-handed when it is time to show others you care. You can take steps now to be fully stocked and prepared to SHARE the amazing revitalization of Ganoderma lucidum with others. The best way to do this is to purchase your next ESP-3, which comes with the widest selection of Gano Excel products available.

Purchasing an ESP-3 now will also bump your GCV commissionable rate to 17% for six months, setting you up for higher payouts through August (your exact dates will depend on your purchase date). That's perfect timing as you help others start a Gano Excel business throughout the spring and summer. Lastly, purchasing your ESP-3 will make you ESP-3 Qualified (if you're not already), which will generate $150 for you every time a personal enrollee purchases an ESP-3, or $350 for you every time they enroll with an ESP-3+.

Don't wait to take action so that you can share the goodness of Ganoderma lucidum at every opportunity. I am excited to see what you will do with this amazing gift!

Sincerely,

Mr. Ooi Chin Aik,
Chief Executive Officer, Gano Excel | North America

LAUGHTER AS A BUSINESS: THE DANI KLEIN MODISETT STORY

Wellness comes from a balance of mind, body and spirit. The synergy of all three performing at their best provides a sense of peace. Each one needs to be nurtured and exercised on a regular basis. One healthy habit that combines the exercise of all three is the simple joy of laughter. Such an essential element in the human experience, can laughter be cultivated to create a business opportunity that both revitalizes and delivers a profit? The answer to that question is sought by comedian-turned-entrepreneur Dani Klein Modisett and her company Laughter on Call.

Dani Klein Modisett had enjoyed a 25-year career as an actress in film and television. When her mother was diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease in 2014, it changed everything for her. Her mother, a heart-and-soul New Yorker with an undying independent spirit, would not accept any of the assistants that Klein Modisett tried employing for her.

When she moved her mother to a fantastic community in Los Angeles to be closer, her mother loved it at first. But inevitably her disease was leading her into isolation and depression and she missed being in New York.

Klein Modisett decided that perhaps comedy could bring some of the smile back into her life and hired a comedian interested in working one-on-one with the elderly. She was a natural, and Klein Modisett saw her mother revitalize. She began eating again, participating in the community, even singing.

The combination of personalized socialization, levity and laughter was counteracting the feelings of isolation and hopelessness.

Klein Modisett decided she would form a company that met this specific need. She started Laughter on Call in 2018 to bring comedy into the lives of those isolated by the devastating disease of Alzheimer's. Many facilities across the country began hiring her company to send comedians to interact personally with their residents as well as conduct community sessions where everyone could participate.

In March of 2020, Klein Modisett began receiving cancellations from all of her facilities. She realized she quickly had to pivot how she would bring the gift of laughter into the lives of people who needed it. She realized that the pandemic was spreading those feelings of isolation to people all over the country.

She began a series of interactive Zoom meetings that brought comedy into people's homes. She also created a new value proposition for companies that were looking for ways to boost employee morale and community. Major corporations have begun offering Laughter on Call as a corporate wellness benefit. This not only has created the opportunity to benefit more people, just also created a new revenue stream for Laughter on Call.

Pushing through the hardship of the pandemic, Klein Modisett took these challenges and turned them into opportunities to spread laughter to even more people than before. She is happy that she did not give up. Instead she has found a way to help people while also investing in long-term sustainability of her company.

As Gano Excel Affiliates know, spreading wellness to others is a joy and a blessing. At Gano Excel you can have a significant impact on the lives of others through the revitalizing power of Ganoderma lucidum. Our products enriched with Ganoderma lucidum deliver its amazing wellness benefits across the body, from support for immune and circulatory systems to mental alertness, and system balance. Best of all, sharing these wonderful products can be a sustainable business opportunity for you to spread both health and wealth to your household and others.

Top 10 Ways to Show You Care

Not everyone is the same. Some love a personal conversation, others like small gifts, others love public recognition. It is important to think through what the person on your mind would like most from you. Looking for some ideas for how to show the prospect or team member that you care? Here are our top ten to get you started.

Smile more

Science shows that when someone smiles at you, you naturally want to smile back. Spreading some cheer could be as easy as being generous with this simple facial expression of kindness and empathy.

Be honest with them

It is more uplifting to show positivity in the midst of a challenge than pretend that the challenge doesn't exist. Share "behind the curtain" and let your friend see the real you. It will build trust that is essential to a growing relationship.

Send encouragement

A home-based business is done best when it's not done alone! Help break the isolation by connecting with a text or a call just to say hello and spread some positivity toward achieving today's goals.

Share a cup of GanoCafe

Who doesn't love a free cup of coffee, especially when it comes enriched with the excellent benefits of Ganoderma lucidum! You can give the gift of a warm, delicious beverage and support your friend's wellness all in one cup.

Invite them to join you

The next time you attend a Gano Excel event, give that friend a call and ask them to be your guest. They may love the chance to see what you have been so passionate about. Help them to know what to expect so there are no surprises.

Support their Coffee Break

It could mean the world to your new team member to see you show up at their next Coffee Break for moral support and to help answer any tough questions.

Bake using Ganoderma

Some friends speak the love language of food. Baking up some Ganoderma-enriched treats for them to eat and share will be the perfect way to say "I love you."

Sit down for a heart to heart

Having the opportunity to speak and be heard is often at the heart of a friendship. Listen to what is on their mind, what their dreams and goals are, and what challenges they are facing. It can be incredibly valuable for a team member or prospect!

Help them enroll that prospect on the fence

Your new enrollee may have some fantastic prospects, but needs help motivating them to take that first step toward changing their lives. Help them close those prospects to benefit both their business and yours!

Share their social media content

Want to light up your team member's day? Take just a second and share that social media content they worked hard to create. Leave a comment on their posts to help their business' visibility.

REVITALIZE: 4 AMAZING INGREDIENTS FOR WELLNESS

Looking to SHARE a delicious beverage with a friend that will not only satisfy their taste buds, but also nurture their health? Give your body the best that nature has to offer! Discover the revitalizing benefits of all-natural ingredients that help you to feel your best. We love these ingredients so much that we've included each one in at least one of our amazing enriched beverage products!

Ganoderma lucidum

Also known as Reishi, this red mushroom has been celebrated for centuries for its amazing wellness benefits. It's best taken daily to build up support for the immune system, support for healthy circulation, detoxification, clearer skin, natural energy, cellular rejuvenation and more! Packed with more than 150 antioxidants and 200 phytonutrients, Ganoderma lucidum is an excellent way to balance the body. Good news! All of Gano Excel's products with the exception of our Cordyceps supplement contain our signature Ganoderma lucidum! Prepare your favorite product and enjoy!

Panax Ginseng

Ginseng is another Asian herb that contains powerful antioxidants. Its unique compounds ginsenosides and gintonin complement one another to provide excellent health benefits, including support for the brain, circulation, and immune system. It may help fight inflammation and promote cellular health, as well as boost natural energy. You can find Panax Ginseng in our GanoCafé Tongkat Ali as well as our Go! Gano REVIVE – two products designed to energize.

Quercetin

This colorful flavonoid found in natural fruits and vegetables acts as a powerful antioxidant in the body. It's another one of nature's great ingredients for fighting inflammation and achieving a greater sense of balance and wellness. This fantastic compound can be found in a variety of foods such as cherries, tomatoes, red grapes, red apples, broccoli, kale, berries and tea. We've included this important flavonoid in our Go! Gano RESTORE, to help support healthy focus and system balance.

Fresh Ginger Root

Another native of Southeast Asia, ginger root has become one of the world's most popular spices, and for good reason! Not only does fresh ginger add a "zing" of flavor to any recipe, it is incredibly healthy to consume as part of a regular diet. Gingerol is the unique bioactive compound found in ginger. Research shows it has excellent anti-inflammatory and antioxidant properties that benefit digestion, brain health, metabolism, and more. We love it so much that we've added it to our citrus-flavored smart beverage Go! Gano REFRESH.

Make sure you let your next enrollee know, all of these amazing ingredients are found in our Plus Package of Go! Gano that they can add to enhance their ESP!

LEADERSHIP SPOTLIGHT

DIAMOND

Erica Reyna

"You must believe in yourself and in others,"

This month marks Erica Reyna's five-year anniversary with Gano Excel. The Premier Diamond has built a whole new life thanks to her entrepreneurial spirit, tenacity and positive attitude. When she enrolled five years ago, she had a vision for her future thanks to the opportunity from Mr. Leow Soon Seng. With 11 Ways to Earn and an array of genuinely excellent products, she knew that spreading the health and wealth of Gano Excel was the right business to be in.

Erica Reyna's self-motivated success came without a background in business. Before Gano Excel she had worked in farm fields in California's Central Valley planting and harvesting crops. She worked long hours and yet was barely able to make ends meet. What she had she gave to her children. She looks back on those times with tears in her eyes now, thinking about how far she has come thanks to Gano Excel and the work she did to fight for her dreams. Her hard work earned her the first-ever Mr. Leow Soon Seng award in December.

Her Gano Excel business brought an opportunity to earn income for her family. She bought a home. She drives the car of her dreams. She is able to dine out with her children and take them on family vacations. However, the change that took place in her lifestyle extended beyond just the things that money could buy. She's received an education, both specific to the knowledge of Ganoderma and Gano Excel, and with life principles and skills like communication and leadership. These skills are not only improving her life within her business, but also in her relationships with her family and children. "I am growing as a person," Erica says. "My life looks completely different today than it did five years ago."

The impact that all of this has had on her life has given her a fresh sense of optimism about the potential that awaits every person who has the motivation to realize it. "Everything is possible," she says. It is a lesson that she hopes to instill in her children, her organization, her neighbors and everyone who will listen. What sets her network marketing business apart from a traditional job is the residual income she is able to generate by building a strong team. To do this takes both faith and action. "You must believe in yourself and in others," says Erica. "But you also must act on that belief, constantly. It is up to you to fight for your dream."

Erica sees that the reason all of this works is the company that Mr. Leow Soon Seng has built, starting with his vision for sharing Ganoderma lucidum with the world. The amazing bioactive properties of Ganoderma lucidum and Mr. Leow's proprietary cultivation process have led to some of the best products on the planet today. On top of that is Mr. Leow's generous compensation plan that gives Gano Excel Affiliates 11 Ways to Earn that make it stand out from other companies. Best of all is how simple it is to SHARE. Who cannot share a cup of coffee with a friend, a relative or a neighbor? Not only are you spreading health and wealth, but you bond with someone over a cup of coffee. It forges a relationship based in a desire to help someone. "It is born from caring, from the heart. It is important that all of your work starts from the inside out," says Erica.

She has seen the difference this change makes in people's lives. She sees the evolution of the person. They grow in their respect for themselves. They have respect for each other. They care about helping each other achieve goals and dreams. They work together as a team. They listen. She says that acting with responsibility and love for one another is one of the most important lessons she's learned this year. She is excited to SHARE over the coming year and build larger-scale events that generate lots of excitement for Gano Excel. "When you are invested in other people your reward is multiplied, because your joy doesn't just come from your own earnings but seeing every person improve their life and make their dreams come true."

GUADALUPE MEDRANO

DALLAS, TX

Guadalupe Medrano is a Gold with Gano Excel proudly sharing the health and wealth of Gano Excel in Dallas, Texas. If you would have asked her five years ago if she would one day be the boss of her own Ganoderma-enriched coffee business she would have thought you were from another planet. She would have said that she did not have the experience or the education to run a business. Not only that, but she didn't even drink coffee! Then, she was introduced to GanoCafé in 2018.

She was delighted to learn that every cup of GanoCafé is enriched with Ganoderma lucidum. She wanted to know more about Ganoderma, so she asked about the benefits it conveyed. She found that it is rich in antioxidants and phytonutrients that the body craves for its continued wellness. She has always been a fan of consuming healthy, natural foods to support the body so switching to GanoCafé was a no-brainer. She shared the enriched coffee with her husband, who had been struggling with the effects of a stressful lifestyle. Regular coffee only made him feel worse, but after drinking GanoCafé he felt great!

Guadalupe knew she and her husband would be drinking GanoCafé every day to support their wellness, so she enrolled immediately as an Affiliate to gain access to the wholesale price. After two years, Erica Reyna opened her eyes to what her Gano Excel business could really look like. She learned about the ways that she could support her family and generate wealth by sharing this amazing coffee with others. She had already shared GanoCafé with her three grown children. They and all their families love it, even the grandkids! She shared it with relatives in Mexico who couldn't wait to enroll and start their Gano Excel businesses as well. Just like that, her business started to take off.

Guadalupe decided to work from home on growing her Gano Excel business. A home-based business has been a huge blessing for her over the last year. She has not had the uncertainty of a business shutting down or reducing her hours. She is in charge of her own schedule. With motivation from Erica Reyna, and her leadership, Guadalupe has learned the art of sharing, enrolling and helping others to get started with this amazing opportunity. In the fall, she became so good at helping her new personal enrollees to create an AutoShip profile that she won a free hotel stay in Los Angeles with the Five to Shine Promotion and was able to travel to the Shine On event to celebrate with Erica Reyna and the entire Gano Excel USA family.

She loves that her business is centered around sharing health and wealth with others. In the next year, she is committed to improving her computer skills to advance her business. She is committed to reaching the Platinum rank and spreading these amazing products to households all across Dallas and the surrounding region. "These excellent products must be shared with everyone," Guadalupe said. "Once people taste it, they love it."
